A Christmas Message

As the nights draw in, the time has come to begin to think about Christmas preparations. For some this is a time of excitement, great displays of lights, and possibly an increased alcohol consumption. For others though, this is a difficult time, coupled as it will be with the fact that the cupboards are bare, or that financial pressures bring with it extra stress on stretched relationships. Others cannot muster enthusiasm, mired in grief for lost loved ones. The message of Christmas is that God is with us in all of these circumstances, reaching out to us with the unconditional love of a baby for it's mother. Jesus was born into far from ideal circumstances, in poverty, cared for by a couple whose relationship was at breaking point, where grief was palpable through broken relationships as the scandal of the pregnancy came to be known. Life is not great for many people at the moment. If your cupboards are bare, I am a Foodbank voucher holder. If you need help do come and see me in confidence. If relationships are at breaking point, or grief seems interminable, St. Cuthbert's is here, with trained pastoral teams willing to offer support. You are invited, whatever your circumstances, to come and share in the joy of this season. God is here with us, a light shining in the darkness. Come and share in the love that Jesus offers us all today. Have a blessed Advent and Christmas, Alastair
